Department of Communication - Curriculum Guide Sheet

* * * APPLICABLE TO STUDENTS ADMITTED TO CCSU ON OR AFTER FALL 2008 * * *

PUBLIC RELATIONS / PROMOTIONS

This emphasis area is designed for students interested in careers in the field of promotions and public relations. It provides students with both the theoretical knowledge and the practical experience that is necessary to implement strategic communication campaigns and initiatives for organizations in the for-profit and non-profit sector.

Continuation Policy

The Department of Communication maintains a policy for continuation in the major. Communication majors must complete Comm. 240 (with a C- or better) and Comm. 140 before they reach 60 credits. Majors must maintain an overall GPA of 2.0 or better to stay in the major.

Key Requirements

A total of 39 credits must be completed. These are divided across three areas: a communication core, required emphasis courses and departmental or suggested outside electives. All students must take a total of 21 credits from 300/400-level courses, with a minimum of 9 credits from 400-level courses.

Communication Core (12 credits)

- Comm. 140 Public Speaking  (to be taken before first semester of junior year)
- Comm. 230 Introduction to Mass Media
- Comm. 240 Survey of the Field of Communication  (to be taken before first semester of junior year)
- Comm. 301 Critical Thinking  OR  Comm. 302 Problem-Solving and Decision-Making

Required Emphasis Courses (9 credits)

- Comm. 215 Introduction to Interpersonal Communication
- Comm. 234 Introduction to Public Relations
- Comm. 443 Communication and Social Influence

Directed Electives (18 credits)  Note: At least 9 credits must be 400 level (which includes Comm. 443) and at least 6 credits must be from Communication department courses listed below.
