1. 20% of first-year full-time students at Central reported making mostly A’s in high school.

2. 65% of first-year full-time students at Central reported that they intend to earn a masters, doctoral, or other graduate degree.

3. Only 9% of students who received a GPA under a 2.0 in their first semester graduated within 6 years!

4. Only 40% of first-year full-time students who received just ONE D, F, or withdrew from a course in their first semester, graduated within 6 years!!!

5. You will be on Academic Probation if your GPA falls below a 2.0.

6. If you have a question regarding your plan of study, be sure to visit your Academic Advisor first.

7. Having a campus job, becoming involved in a student organization, or taking part in intramural sports, are good ways to meet new people on campus.

8. When you are struggling with academics, the following resources are available to you:
   a. The Math and Statistics Tutoring Lab in The Learning Center, Copernicus Rm 241
   b. Your professor’s office hours
   c. Academic Coaching, Copernicus Rm 241
   d. Student Disability Service Office, Copernicus Rm 241
   e. The Writing Center, Willard Rm 305
   f. eTutoring, Online at The Learning Center Webpage
   g. The School of Business Tutoring Lab, Vance 209
   h. Your textbook and notes

9. It is NOT recommended to work more than 16 hours a week as a full-time college student.

10. Completing Algebra II during high school, withdrawing from a course or courses, and not completing enough credits during the first year of college, are all circumstances that majorly affect college student’s graduation rate.

11. It is recommended that you study 2 to 3 hours per week for each hour in class.

12. It is important to READ your class syllabus. You always want to be aware of what each class requires from you...No surprises!