Study History or Sociology in Ireland!
Register for one of these Spring 2015 courses and take a trip to Ireland over Spring Break

HIST 498: Historical Field Studies Abroad
-or-
SOC 494: Field Studies in Sociology

HIST 498 emphasizes the history of Ireland from the pre-historic period to the present day.

SOC 494 focusses on recent political conflict, conflict resolution, and transformations of the Republican movement.

No pre-requisites required. Courses are open to undergrads and graduate students majoring in any discipline.

Spring Break in Ireland

March 13-22, 2015

(yes, that includes St. Patrick’s Day!)

Cost of trip: $2,895
[some $400 scholarships are available]

The cost includes round-trip airfare, accommodations at Inch House Irish Studies Centre (http://www.inchhouse.com), ground transportation, entrance fees, and most meals.

Registration deadline:
December 1, 2014

Reserve a space on the trip at:
Center for International Education
123 Barnard Hall
-or-
http://web.ccsu.edu/cie/courseAbroad/courses/ireland.asp

Contact:

Dr. Louise Williams
(History)
WilliamsL@ccsu.edu
or 832-2806

Dr. John O’Connor
(Sociology)
oconnorjohn@ccsu.edu
or 832-2975

Find us on Facebook: CCSUIrelandAbroad