University Mission

Central Connecticut State University is a community of learners dedicated to teaching and to scholarship. We encourage the development and application of knowledge and ideas through research and outreach activities. We prepare students to be thoughtful, responsible and successful citizens.

Central Connecticut State University is, above all else, about teaching students at the baccalaureate, master and doctoral levels consistent with our historical mission. Our research endeavors improve us as teachers and expose our students to methods of inquiry. The public service expected of all members of our community benefits our society - local and global – and builds our sense of citizenship.

Facilities Planning Committee Buildings and Grounds Usage Summary

The Facilities planning Committee is charged by the University President with having primary responsibility for all University facilities, which includes all buildings and grounds.

The Facilities Planning Committee, in its advisory capacity to the University President and the Chief Administrative Officer, acts as a clearinghouse for all internal requests for capital projects, renovations, campus moves, assignment of space, utilization of University facilities, and grounds issues.

The main priority of the Committee, in support of the academic mission, is the protection of instructional space, none of which can be removed without unanimous support of its membership.

In order for any internal or external organization to use any buildings or grounds at the University, the organization’s mission and planned event must be consistent with the following five principles:

• The stated mission of the University

• State or federal laws and public policy

• University regulations and policies

• The promotion of the University’s positive public reputation
• The stated policies governing the health and welfare of the community
