  • Report, 10/25/2016
    o Discussed the need for those teaching online graduate courses to self-identify to the committee their level of online instructional expertise.
      ▪ Most, but not all, are reporting.
      ▪ Dean will make available names of online instructors as soon as course schedule is finalized.
      ▪ Those who do not reply will have course converted to on ground.
