Washington, April 15—(A.P)—Moisture may be applied to any paper you want to keep dry, but it can't be applied to the Dry Law which is being kept dry by the Federal Government. The question of the Dry Law, which has been the subject of much discussion in recent weeks, was raised by Maurice S. Sherman of The Hartford, in his address to the National Women's Organization for Prohibition Reform.

The motion of Sherman for the prohibition of dry law was adopted by the organization, which numbered about 50 members present. Sherman said that the prohibition of dry law was necessary to prevent the sale of alcoholic beverages, which were the cause of much evil in the country. He said that the prohibition of dry law would be a great benefit to the country, and that it would be a great step forward in the fight against sin.

The motion was adopted by acclamation, and the organization adjourned.

plausible character, that no distinction can be drawn between him and a thousand others who use all the means of the law, and who are culpable in every respect. If we condemn him for his use of the law, then we are all convicts.

The prohibitionists think it strange that his law should not meet with more success. But this is the result of a series of extraordinary laws, passed in haste and without careful consideration. The prohibitionists believe that the law is not enough to enforce prohibition.
