THE MOST IMPORTANT DAY OF THE CIVIL WAR

APRIL 20, 1864

PLYMOUTH, NC

THE CONFEDERATE PLAN
TO TAKE PLYMOUTH
ENDED WHEN 2,800 UNION
TROOPS SURRENDERED
THE CITY

More soldiers credited to Hartford were listed as casualties (106) on this day than on any other day of the war. Two soldiers were missing, 98 were captured, and 6 were wounded & captured in the 16TH Connecticut. Forty-four died in prison.

The date April 20, 1864 ranks 6TH for total casualties (433) (1 killed, 2 missing, 12 wounded & captured, 418 captured) for a single day for the State of Connecticut. All of the casualties were at Plymouth, NC.

The Battle of Plymouth (April 20, 1864) ranks 9TH for total casualties (433) for an engagement for the State of Connecticut. Nearly half of all soldiers captured at Plymouth died in Southern prisons

The Battle of Plymouth with 106 total casualties for Hartford was the highest number of casualties for any single engagement of the war for the city.

When Confederate General Robert Hoke surrounded and captured the Union garrison at Plymouth, NC the Southern victory was the first in this military arena in quite some time. With aid from the two-gun ironclad Albatross the Confederates were able to take advantage of the lack of suitable Union gunboats.
