What is Sexual Assault?

Sexual assault is a crime and it will not be tolerated at Central Connecticut State University. It includes, but is not limited to, a sexual act directed against another person without the consent (as defined in the Board of Regent’s Sexual Misconduct Policy) of the other person or when that person is not capable of giving such consent. Any person can be a victim or a perpetrator.

Examples: rape, attempted rape, and/or intentional touching a person’s body for sexual gratification without their consent.

What is Consent?

Consent is active; both parties say “yes.” It is ongoing and can be withdrawn at any time without fear or explanation. Consent is a must for every form of sexual activity every time. You have the right to withdraw consent even if you have consented to sexual activity with the person in the past. Consent is ...

» agreeing to specific sexual behavior willingly. Obtaining consent is the responsibility of the person initiating the sexual contact.

» not valid if forced, intimidated or coerced.

» not valid when judgment is impaired by the use of alcohol/drugs or if the person is sleeping or unconscious.

State law is very clear that having sexual intercourse with someone who cannot consent is RAPE.
If someone tells you about a sexual assault... Remember

1 Listen and don’t form opinions
2 Don’t judge the severity of the situation based on their response to it
3 Empower them to make their own decisions
4 Trust their word and help them
5 Tell them you believe them
6 Let them know they are not alone

What is Intimate Partner, Domestic and/or Dating Violence?

Intimate partner, domestic and/or dating violence includes acts of violence or threats of violence that occur between individuals who are family or household members, or persons in a current or former dating or cohabitating relationship. Intimate partner violence may include physical abuse, emotional abuse and threats of abuse.

Examples: assaults, rape, domestic or family violence involving physical force, stalking, texting that contains obscene material, electronic communications that contain serious threats of physical violence, and violation of a protective or restraining order issued by a court.
What is Stalking?

Stalking is defined as obsessive or unwanted contact of another person. This contact may cause reasonable apprehension of imminent physical harm or affect one's ability to perform daily life functions. It is when someone repeatedly contacts you, follows you, talks to you when you do not want them to, or threatens you.

Examples: unwanted communication (email, texting, instant messaging and other electronic forms), damaging personal property, showing up places you go, or sending unwanted gifts.

If it doesn’t feel right or safe, it probably isn’t.

Emergency Medical Attention
911 for immediate assistance

If you believe you or someone you know has been sexually assaulted, you can contact the OEI, which will investigate complaints of discrimination and sexual harassment including sexual violence. Complaints against students are handled by the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities. OEI is committed to fostering a positive learning, working and living environment. The Senior Equity & Inclusion Officer serves as the Title IX Coordinator. The OEI also:

» Conducts training on the prevention of sexual harassment

» Assists faculty, staff and students who believe they have been harassed or treated unfairly because they are a member of a protected class

» Provides referrals to on-campus or off-campus services including, but not limited to, medical and counseling providers, and victim services

CCSU faculty, staff, or administrators who are made aware of a sexual assault involving a member of the CCSU community are required to report it to the Title IX Coordinator at 860-832-1652.
Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities

The OSRR promotes social responsibility and resolves discipline cases on campus in a sound and fair manner. The staff are available to answer any questions or concerns about University behavioral standards and the CCSU Student Code of Conduct and Statement of Disciplinary Procedures.

» Investigates allegations involving students
» Resolves discipline cases
» Provides referrals to CCSU and community programs

CCSU Police

The CCSU Police Department will give its full assistance in response to a report of sexual assault. The police department will:

» Obtain medical assistance
» Conduct a criminal investigation
» Establish a safety plan
» Obtain a court order to protect the victim/survivor
» Connect the victim/survivor with support services

If the incident occurred off-campus, CCSU police can assist in contacting the police department of the town in which it took place.

SWS, Medical Services

The SWS staff are trained in caring for victims of sexual assault. The office is staffed by a physician, two APRNs, and an RN. All are ready to listen and provide medical care and support. The collection of medical evidence is offered at New Britain’s Hospital of Central Connecticut. SWS staff provide:

- Medical evaluation and treatment
- Referral to medical specialists and counseling
- Coordination with the CCSU Office of Victim Advocacy or YWCA Sexual Assault Crisis Services
- Medical evidence collection facilitation
- Emergency contraception
- Screening for STD/infections
- Medication to prevent any STD/infection

Hospital of Central Connecticut (HCC)

Part of the Gail Burns-Smith Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) program, HCC has specially trained staff (SAFEs) who can collect the necessary evidence to aid criminal conviction. Procedures are carried out with compassionate care to help the survivor feel at ease.

These services are on-call 24/7 to improve the chances of gathering successful evidence, as it is best within 72 hours. SAFEs are specifically trained to safely guide survivors through the entire medical-legal process after a sexual assault incident.

- Closest location for free state-funded rape analysis
- 24/7 sexual assault examinations and counseling
- Forensic evidence collection
- Collaboration with law enforcement and justice personnel

Helpful Tips

If you are the victim of sexual or interpersonal violence:

» Go to a safe place

» Preserve evidence

» Call someone you trust such as the Office of Victim Advocacy (860-832-3795), a staff or faculty member, your hall director, resident assistant (RA), or a campus advocate at the local Sexual Assault Crisis Service

» Call CCSU Police at 860-832-2375 or dial 911

» Seek medical care and/or counseling
How Can I Help Stop Sexual Assault/Violence?

Sexual assault and interpersonal violence are complex and very real issues on college campuses today. In order to address this reality, all members of the campus community and relevant outside agencies must work together. Public safety is everyone’s responsibility. Consider the following ways you can work to stop sexual violence and interpersonal violence.

» Speak up. Take a stand in situations that could escalate.
» Talk openly with your friends about these issues.
» Encourage student leaders, coaches, professors, and others to provide information about sexual assault to students.
» Use the resources listed in this brochure to inform yourself and help plan activities and programs for campus clubs and organizations.
» Don’t be afraid to get involved.
» Take care of yourself and your friends.

Student Rights

CCSU has protocols and procedures in place to respond to reports of sexual violence. When a report involves students (as the accuser or the accused), all involved have equal rights throughout the disciplinary process, including the right to:

» select an advisor or support person of their choosing and to bring that person to any meetings or proceedings that they choose.
» present a statement, evidence and witnesses on their behalf.
» review information, in a timely manner, that will be used at the hearing by other parties.
» have a pre-hearing meeting.
» be informed, in writing, of the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings and any sanctions imposed.
» appeal the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings.

These rights were established by University policies and, state and federal legislation that prohibit sex discrimination. For information on Title IX see wwwknowyourix.org.

Your Rights

» Be treated with respect and dignity.

» Not be judged based on your race, color, age, class, religion, disability status, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, or the offender’s relationship to you.

» You can refuse to answer any questions about the sexual assault, your sexual orientation, and your sexual, medical (including HIV status), and mental health histories.

» Have confidential conversations with a CCSU licensed counselor in Student Wellness Services.

» Decide if you want to make a police report.

» Have an advocate accompany you to medical, law enforcement and legal proceedings.

» Request that someone you are comfortable with stay with you in the examination room.

» Ask questions and get answers regarding any tests, examinations, medications, treatments or police reports.
